

Financial Management

CopyIT!®

PSW

LAP Modules

Count the Cash (Cash Flow)
Knowing when money will flow in, where it will come from, and how much will come is the reason for preparing cash flow statements. Learn how businesses track this information to be able to pay expenses, save for a rainy day, and continue to grow. ©2007. Recommended: HS/PS.

LAP-FI-006C-SP-4...$43.95
(Member: $33.95) (complete)

Additional copies of student LAP (20)
LAP-FI-006K-SP-4...$25.95 (Member: $21.95)

Count the Cash (PowerPoint)
PSW-FI-006-4...$49.95 (Member: $35.95)

Money Matters (Role of Finance)
The finance function involves all money and money management matters. It also encompasses all the tools and analysis that financial managers use to make the decisions involved in money management. ©2008. Recommended: HS.

LAP-FI-007C-CS-4...$43.95
(Member: $33.95) (complete)

Additional copies of student LAP (20)
LAP-FI-007K-CS-4...$25.95 (Member: $21.95)

Money Matters (PowerPoint)
PSW-FI-007-4...$49.95 (Member: $35.95)

Save! Purchase Direct Downloads online.

Quantity Pricing Available!

Program of Study

New! Program of Study Package (Set of 4): Business Administration Resource Kits

Details for a non-duplicated sequence of instruction for your management students. Addresses grades 9–14, with suggestions for college articulation. Detailed course descriptions! Package of four, addressing: 1) Entrepreneurship, 2) Finance, 3) Business Management and Administration, 4) Marketing. Please see individual descriptions for each program of study model in this series. ©2009. Recommended: HS/PS

MSC-09-003-4...$199.00 (Member: $129.00)

CD version: MSC-09-003CD-4...$189.00 (Member: $119.00)

New! Program of Study Resource Kit: Finance

Based on national standards for finance, the Finance Program of Study contains a recommended sequence of non-duplicated technical and academic courses for students (grades 9–14) interested in five finance pathways—accounting, banking services, business finance, insurance, and securities and investments. Technical courses include course descriptions and rigorous, industry-endorsed learning outcomes. Academic courses meet typical state high school graduation requirements. ©2009. Recommended: HS/PS

MSC-09-006-4...$79.00 (Member: $59.00)

CD version: MSC-09-006CD-4...$69.00 (Member: $49.00)

Course Guides and Profiles

New! Course Guide: Introduction to Finance

One credit high-school finance course addressing financial concepts identified in the national standards for the finance cluster. Presents a rigorous introduction to the finance cluster pathways. Hands-on, standards-based projects are provided to appeal to a variety of learning styles. ©2009. Recommended: HS

MSC-09-021-4...$129.00 (Member: $99.00)

MSC-09-021CD-4...$119.00 (Member: $89.00)

New! Course Profile: Introduction to Finance

Do you need help building an introductory finance course? Ideally, Introduction to Finance students would take Leadership, Personal Finance, and Business and Marketing Essentials in the semesters leading up to this course. The Introduction to Finance course profile provides a quick overview of the recommended course content, including recommendations for sequencing this yearlong course. ©2010. Length: 54. Recommended: HS

CG-10-003-4...$39.00 (Member: $29.00)

Save! Purchase Direct Downloads online.

Financial Management

DVDs

New! Top Careers in Two Years:

Business, Finance, and Government Administration

This DVD is meant to supplement the book Top Careers in Two Years: Business, Finance, and Government Administration (RB-07-166). The program provides a unique, behind-the-scenes look at a specific field for students seeking a rewarding career without a four-year commitment to college. ©2009. Length: 25. Recommended: HS

DVD-09-166-4...$99.95 (Member: $94.95)

Find these and more in our online store.

Search topic=
Financial Management

Satisfaction
100% Guaranteed!

Reference Books

New! What Can I Do Now? Business and Finance
[Hardcover] Written in straightforward language, Business and Finance provides helpful information for readers looking to get a head start on their career. Featuring an overview of the industry, key career profiles, tips on how to get started, and other ways to explore career opportunities, this new resource is essential for students interested in this lucrative field. ©2010.
Recommended: MS/HS

RB-10-008-4...$32.95 (Member: $31.30)

